Pavel Goia knew at a young age that God had called him to ministry. Born and raised in communist Romania, he didn't find it easy to follow that calling. After drifting during his teenage years, his life took a proverbial turn, and he promised to serve God and fulfill his original calling. His promise was tested almost immediately. The events that ensued are chronicled in the book One Miracle After Another: The Pavel Goia Story, by Gregg Budd. Pavel pursued careers in engineering, private business, and law before finally settling into his calling as a minister. Today he is the Associate Ministerial Secretary at the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. His life continues to be one miracle after another.

Micheal Goetz is lead pastor at the Champion Adventist Church. He began ministry serving as a police chaplain and pastoral ministry in Pennsylvania before joining the team as an associate pastor on the campus of Andrews University. Micheal has his degree in theology from Montemorelos University in Mexico. Graduate studies include a Master of Divinity (M.Div.) and a Doctorate in Ministry (D.Min.) in Homiletics from Andrews University. Oregon is his home state and enjoys running, mountain climbing, and reading. His musically gifted wife Melanie, also a runner, is a dental hygienist. Daughter, Cana, and son, Micahl, bring more energy and delight than ever thought possible.
